Dear Parents/Guardians,

Updates on PSLE Scoring and Secondary 1 Posting System from 2021

To support you and your child in understanding the new PSLE scoring system that will be implemented next year, MOE has shared more information on:

- (i) Indicative Achievement Level (AL) Cut-Off Point (COP) ranges for different secondary school types; and
- (ii) Subject-Based Banding (SBB) eligibility criteria under the AL scoring system.

The attached infographic provides a summary of the announcement. For more information, please visit MOE's PSLE microsite (refer to the link included).

In addition, MOE will be organising a webinar on "Preparing Your Child's Transition to Secondary Education" on 5 Dec (Sat), 10am to 12noon. This session aims to familiarise parents of Primary 5 children with the new PSLE scoring and Secondary 1 posting system, and how they can support their children in the transition to secondary school. You may sign up via the following link:
